EXPLANATION OF REFERENCES

Pages 72 through 78 list the references consulted in compiling the information in this book. These references are numbered. Following the treatment of each family, the references used for that family's data are indicated by number.

Example: On page 72, the published vital records of Newbury, Massachusetts, is cited as reference #4. After the information regarding William-1 Sawyer on page 3, one of the references given is #4. This indicates that the vital information stated for his family as having occurred "in Newbury" includes the consultation of the published vital records of Newbury to confirm that information.

Where possible, vital information was confirmed by consulting vital record sources. If the information was not found, the date and place is often given and then indicated "unconfirmed."

"E.P." is the designation for Essex County, Massachusetts, probate record, and is followed by the number of the record itself.

SOME SAWYERS IN ESSEX COUNTY, MASSACHUSETTS

Among those named Sawyer, who settled early in New England, were three men who lived in the Ipswich-Rowley-Newbury neighborhood as early as the 1630s, perhaps coming from Lincolnshire, England. The name was often spelled "Sayer," as well as "Sawer" and "Sayor," in early records.

Edward Sawyer, believed to have been born about 1608 in England, was perhaps in Ipswich by 1636, but was in Rowley in 1643. His wife was Mary Peasley, daughter of John Peasley of Lincolnshire, England. Their children are believed to have been Mary, who married, first, William Mitchell and, second, Robert Savory; Henry; James; Samuel; Sarah; John; John (again), who married Mary Parrat; and Ezekiel. Edward Sawyer was killed, with his son, Ezekiel, at the Battle of Bloody Brook in 1675.

Thomas Sawyer, believed to have been born about 1616 in England, was in Rowley but had moved to Lancaster, Massachusetts, by 1647. His wife was Mary Prescott, daughter of John and Mary (Platts) Prescott. Their children were Thomas, who married Sarah Fairbanks; Ephraim; Mary, who married Nathaniel Wilder; Elizabeth; Joshua, who married Sarah (Wright) Potter; James, who married Mary Marble; Caleb, who married Sarah Houghton; John, who married Mary Ball; Elizabeth (again), who married James Hasmer; Deborah; Nathaniel, who married, first, Mary _____ and, second, Elizabeth _____; Hannah, who married Joseph Blood; and Martha. Thomas Sawyer died 12 September 1706 in Lancaster.

WILLIAM SAWYER OF NEWBURY, MASSACHUSETTS, IN 1644

William Sawyer was born about 1613, possibly in Lincolnshire, England. He is said to have been the son of John Sawyer, born about 1582. He was a farmer and probably came to Massachusetts about 1636. It is surmised that Edward and Thomas Sawyer were his brothers.

William Sawyer lived in Salem in 1640 and received a grant of land there, called "Sawyer's Playne," in 1642; in Wenham in 1643; and was in Newbury in 1644. In 1671 he was a resident of Amesbury, but had returned to Newbury in 1678.

Land near the river was taken upon his arrival in Newbury, so he was assigned a tract at the Newbury Upper Woods in the West Parish, later called Sawyer's Hill.

William Sawyer married Ruth Bitfield about 1644. She was the daughter of William and Elizabeth (_____) Bitfield. He joined the Baptist Church in Boston in 1681, and was one of the founders of the Baptist Church in Newbury in 1682. The church did not flourish and soon ceased to exist.

In 1662 he became involved in a dispute regarding land he had purchased in 1647 from Christopher Palmer, who acted for Ann Palmer, wife of Francis Palmer. In 1671, as a resident of Amesbury, he petitioned with others to be allowed to train for the militia in Amesbury and not in Salisbury, which was more distant from his home.

He took the oath of allegiance in 1678, stating he was 65 years of age.

Administration was granted on his estate 1 March 1703.

The children of William and Elizabeth (Bitfield) Sawyer, born in Newbury:

1. John, born 24 August 1645, married Sarah Poor.
2. Samuel, born 22 November 1646, married Mary Emery.
3. Ruth, born 16 September 1648, married Benjamin Morse.
4. Mary, born 7 February 1649, died 24 June 1659 in Newbury.
5. Sarah, born 20 November 1651, married Joshua Brown.
6. Hannah, born 23 February 1653, died 20 or 25 January 1659 in Newbury.
7. William, born 1 February 1655 or 1656, married Sarah (Littlefield) Wells.
8. Frances, born 24 March 1658, died 7 February 1659 in Newbury.
9. Mary, born 29 July 1660, married John Emery.
10. Stephen, born 25 April 1663, married Ann Titcomb.
11. Hannah, born 11 January 1664, died 28 August 1683 in Newbury.
12. Frances, born 3 November 1670, married Thomas Treadwell.

NOTE: There may have been another child, Bitfield, born 1672, died 1769. Some authorities believe that James Sawyer of Ipswich in 1669 was one of William Sawyer's sons; he married Sarah Bray.

SECOND GENERATION

-1-

John Sawyer, son of William and Ruth (Bitfield) Sawyer, was born 24 August 1645 in Newbury. He was a Freeman 12 October 1681. He married Sarah Poor 18 February 1675 in Newbury. She was born 5 June 1655 in Newbury, daughter of John and Sarah (_____) Poore.

John Sawyer bought land in Haverhill in 1669, but had returned to Newbury by 1681. He was the founder of the Baptist Church in Newbury. He died 30 May 1689 in Newbury.

Sarah (Poor) Sawyer married, second, Joseph Bailey 27 November 1707 in Newbury. He was born in Newbury 4 April 1648, son of John and Eleanor (Emery) Bailey, Jr., and was previously married to Priscilla Putnam before 1675.

Priscilla Putnam was born 4 March 1657 in Salem, the daughter of John and Rebecca (Prince) Putnam of Salem Village (now Danvers). She died 16 November 1704 in Salem. She is buried in Danvers.

Joseph Bailey took the Oath of Allegiance in 1678 at the age of 30 years. About 1692, he removed to Cape Porpus, York County, Maine. He returned to Newbury by 1703. However, he was again living in Maine when he as a selectman of Arundel in 1719. October 23, 1723, he was killed by Indians at Kennebec, Maine.

Children of John and Sarah (Poor) Sawyer, born in Newbury:

13. Ruth, born 22 September 1677; apparently did not marry.
14. William, born 29 April 1679; married Lydia Webster.
15. Sarah, born 20 May 1681; apparently did not marry.
16. John, born 25 April 1683; died 18 or 19 March 1688/9 in Newbury.
17. Jonathan, born 4 March 1684/5; married Mary Rawlins.

18. David, born 13 January 1686; married Eleanor Frost.
19. John, born 11 September 1688; married Abigail Thurlow.

-2-

Samuel Sawyer, son of William and Ruth (Bitfield) Sawyer, was born 22 November 1646 in Newbury. He was a Freeman 12 May 1675 and took the Oath of Allegiance in 1678 at the age of 29. He was a vestryman of Queen Anne's Chapel, having previously been interested in the Quakers when a Quaker meeting was held in his home in May, 1704.

He married Mary Emery 13 March 1670/1 in Newbury. She was born 24 June 1652 in Newbury, the daughter of John and Mary (Webster*) Emery, Jr.

In 1690, he was licensed to sell food and drink because he "lived conveniently by the road to Bradford and Haverhill."

Samuel Sawyer died 11 February 1718 in Newbury, aged 71 years, 2 months, and 20 days.

Children of Samuel and Mary (Emery) Sawyer, born in Newbury:

20. Mary, born 20 January 1671; married Edward Woodman.
21. Samuel, born 5 or 8 June 1674; married Abigail Goodridge.
22. John, born 15 March 1675 or 1676; married, first, Mary (Brown) Merrill; second, Sarah (Wells) Sibley.
23. Hannah, born 12 January 1678/9.
24. Josiah, born 20 January 1680; married Tirzah Bartlett.

*Genealogists disagree as to the identity of the mother of Mary Emery. Some believe Mary Webster, daughter of John and Mary (Shatswell) Webster, did not marry John Emery, Jr., but died without marrying. They further believe John Emery, Jr.'s wife was an unknown Mary, or perhaps Mary Whipple. Except for a marriage record in Newbury 2 October 1648, or perhaps one in Ipswich 29 October 1650 (which is probably that of Mary (Shatswell) Webster and John Emery, Sr.), there is no conclusive evidence one way or the other.

25. Joshua, born 23 February 1682; married Elizabeth ?Grant.
26. Unnamed daughter, born 7 March 1684/5; died 26 March 1685 in Newbury.
27. Benjamin, born 27 October 1686; married Elizabeth Jameson.
28. Unnamed child, born and died 15 November 1693.

Note: The Emery and Poor genealogies disagree on both the order and the number of children. Sawyer Family of Maine, by Ernest A. Sawyer, states there were ten children. The vital records of Newbury give the names and dates above. There was probably another daughter because three daughters were living in 1718.

-3-

Ruth Sawyer, daughter of William and Ruth (Bitfield) Sawyer, was born 16 September 1648 in Newbury. She married Benjamin Morse 26 August 1667 in Newbury. He was born 27 March 1641 in Newbury, son of Anthony and Ann (Cox) Morse. He was a freeman 7 May 1673, and took the Oath of Allegiance in 1678 at the age of 37. He was a selectman, fence viewer, and constable in Newbury. He was a deacon of the First Church of Newbury, having previously been a founder of the Baptist Church in Newbury.

Children of Benjamin and Ruth (Sawyer) Morse, born in Newbury:

29. Benjamin Morse, Jr., born 24 August 1668; married Susanna Merrill 28 January 1691/2 in Newbury.
30. Ruth Morse, born 8 December 1669; married Dr. Caleb Moody, Jr. 9 December 1690 in Newbury.
31. Joseph Morse, born 5 or 10 February 1671; married Sarah Merrill (int.) 7 October 1696 in Newbury.
32. William Morse, born 23 January 1673; married Sarah Merrill 12 May 1696 in Newbury.
33. Sarah Morse, born 13 January 1675; died in January, 1678 in Newbury.
34. Philip Morse, born 19 October 1677; married, first, Mary Brown 11 December 1707 in Newbury; second, Sarah Pillsbury 28 September 1749 in Newbury.

35. Sarah Morse, born 19 January 1679; married Caleb Pillsbury 11 February 1703 in Newbury.
36. Anne Morse, born 27 March 1681; unmarried in 1707.
37. Esther or Hester Morse; married Jonathon Kelly 6 July 1702 in Newbury. This may be the unnamed daughter of Benjamin Morse, born 14 March 1681/2 in Newbury.
38. Hannah Morse, married Samuel Poor, Jr. (int.) September, 1705 in Newbury. This may be the unnamed daughter born 1681/2. The Morse genealogy gives her birthdate as 19 February 1681/2.
39. Mary Morse, born 15 May 1686; married David Merrill 18 December 1706 in Newbury.
40. Samuel Morse, born 7 December 1688; married, first, Elizabeth March 23 February 1712/3 in Newbury; second, Hannah Ordway (int.) 11 July 1724 in Newbury; third, Bethiah (Bridges) Dalton 24 September 1725 in Andover; and, fourth, Abigail Perley 12 December 1728 in Boxford.

-7-

William Sawyer, son of William and Ruth (Bitfield) Sawyer, was born 1 February 1655 or 1656 in Newbury. He fought in King Philip's War against the Indians at Sugar Loaf Hill, near Hatfield, Massachusetts, on 25 August 1675; and against the Indian fort at Narraganset on 6 December 1675. He was probably also at the Muddy Brook Bridge battle on 18 September 1675.

He moved to Wells, Maine, in April, 1677, having been granted land for his service in King Philip's War. He married Mrs. Sarah (Littlefield) Wells 2 November 1677. She was born 15 November 1649 in Wells, daughter of Francis and Rebecca (_____) Littlefield, and was the widow of John Wells, who she married between 1665 and 1667.

John Wells, born about 1638, probably in Ipswich, son of Thomas and Abigail (Warner) Wells, had died 11 April 1677.

William Sawyer bought his first land in Wells in 1679, and had a land grant there in 1685. He was one of those who organized the church in October, 1701; and among those granted 200 acres near their fulling mill at Little River in 1713.

William Sawyer died 7 June 1718 in Wells, aged about 62 years. His will of 4 June 1718 was proved in July, 1718. Sarah (Littlefield-Wells) Sawyer died 1 June 1734 in Wells, aged 85 years. Her will was proved 27 April 1734.

The children of William and Sarah (Littlefield-Wells) Sawyer, born in Wells, Maine:

48. Joseph, born 14 August 1678; married Mary Fletcher.
49. Francis, born 6 March 1681; married, first, Elizabeth (Russell) Dennis; second, Susannah (Lord) Low; third, Hannah (Rindge) Staniford; and fourth, Mary Knowlton.

THIRD GENERATION

-13-

Ruth Sawyer, daughter of John and Sarah (Poor) Sawyer, was born 22 September 1677 in Newbury. She apparently did not marry, but had children, born in Newbury:

69. Benjamin Sawyer, born 6 January 1700/1.

Essex County, Massachusetts, General Sessions Court Records, 25 March 1701, volume 3, page 80, reveal that Ruth Sawyer of Newbury accused her cousin, Tristram Browne (#43) of Newbury, of being the father of a child begotten in May, 1700. He was ordered to pay maintenance.

70. Jemimah Merrill, born 14 March 1705.

The Vital Records of Newbury give the surname of this child as Merrill and the father as Jonathan Merrill. Essex County, Massachusetts, General Sessions Court Records, 25 September 1705, volume 3, page 154, reveal that Ruth Sawyer of Newbury accused Jonathan Morrill of being the father of her daughter. She was fined £3 and there is no order for maintenance. None of the Jonathan Morrills known to be in the area at this time seem to fit here. However, if the Newbury vital records are correct, the father may be Jonathan Merrill may be the son of Abraham and Abigail (Webster) Merrill, born 19 January 1675/6 in Newbury.

Sarah Sawyer, daughter of Dr. Enoch and Sarah (Pierpont) Sawyer, was born 25 March 1740 in Newbury. She married Thomas Parsons 18 July 1762 in Newbury.

Thomas Parsons was born 23 June 1731 in Gloucester, son of Thomas and Rachel (Baker) Parsons. He had previously married Sarah Noyes (int.) 1 April 1758 in Newbury. She is believed to be a descendant of Reverend James Noyes, but her ancestry has not been determined. She had died (Mary, wife of Capt. Thomas) 1 August 1761 in Newbury, aged 20 years, 8 days after the birth of their son.

The children of Thomas and Sarah (Sawyer) Parsons:

600. Sarah Parsons, born 9 July 1766 in Newbury.
601. Anna Parsons, born 21 February 1769 in Newbury.
602. Mary Parsons, born 25 June 1771 in Newburyport.
